DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 20-93 are presented for examination; claims 20, 36, 37, 48, 72, 73, 84, 88, and 93 independent. The Office acknowledges the receipt of the substitute specification and the preliminary amendment canceling claims 1-19.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The IDS's received on December 31, 2003, April 29, 2004, and May 18, 2005 have been received and considered. See enclosed PTO-1449.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 20-28, 31-35, 37-72, and 84-93 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because they recite intangible embodiments of the invention.

4. Referring to exemplary claim 20, the claim recites a system comprising receiving means and spoofing means. As such is disclosed in the specification, both can be implemented in merely software, which is intangible (see abstract). MPEP 2106 requires that any software code be embodied on a tangible medium.

5. Any claims not specifically addressed above are rejected for similar reasons as stated above.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-101 of Patent no. 6,701,370 (the parent case) contains every element of claims 20-93 of the instant application and as such anticipates claims 20-93 of the instant application. Although this case is being filed as a divisional, normally precluding double patenting rejections, Applicant has cancelled the entire previous claim set and has added claims 20-93 which recite essentially the same subject matter as described in the parent claims. As such a Double Patenting rejection over the parent case is deemed proper, since no restriction would have been filed.

Art Unit: 2143

7. "A later patent claim is not patentably distinct from an earlier patent claim if the later claim is obvious over, or anticipated by, the earlier claim. In re Longi, 759 F.2d at 896, 225 USPQ at 651 (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting because the claims at issue were obvious over claims in four prior art patents); In re Berg, 140 F.3d at 1437, 46 USPQ2d at 1233 (Fed. Cir. 1998) (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting where a patent application claim to a genus is anticipated by a patent claim to a species within that genus)." ELI LILLY AND COMPANY v BARR LABORATORIES, INC., United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, ON PETITION FOR REHEARING EN BANC (DECIDED: May 30, 2001).

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
